Eye Bank welcomes Paul R. Goldberg to Board of Directors

CLARK – The Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey is pleased to announce that Paul R. Goldberg will be joining its Board of Directors, effective July 1.

Goldberg brings with him years of experience as a top-level advisor and financial manager for hospitals, health systems and healthcare organizations. He is currently the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Liberty HealthCare in northern New Jersey.

“We’re very excited to have Paul on our Board,” says Margaret Chaplin, Executive Director of the Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey. “His experience in the world of finance makes him a wonderful addition to our organization.”

Goldberg holds a Master’s degree in Finance from Temple University, where he also earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. He resides in Jersey City, New Jersey.

The Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey is a charitable, not-for-profit organization dedicated to the restoration of sight. It recovers, evaluates and distributes human eye tissue for transplantation. It also supports research into the causes and cures of blinding eye conditions, promotes donation awareness through public and professional education, and provides humanitarian aid to people in need of corneal transplantation throughout the world. For more information, visit the Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey online at www.lionseyebanknj.org or call (800) 653-9379.
