Eye Bank welcomes Ray Tigol to Board of Directors

CLARK – The Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey is pleased to announce that Ray Tigol, CPA, CHFP will be joining its Board of Directors, effective July 1.

Tigol brings with him years of experience in both the public and private accounting fields, and has served as a finance department executive. He is currently the Controller to the Director of Finance at Carrier Clinic, Inc., a not-for-profit behavioral health facility in Belle Mead, New Jersey.

“We’re very excited to have Ray on our Board,” says Margaret Chaplin, Executive Director of the Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey. “His experience in the world of finance and his service as a member of his local Lions Club make him a wonderful addition to our organization.”

Tigol is a Certified Public Accountant and Certified Healthcare Financial Professional. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, with a major in Accounting, as well as an Executive Masters of Public Administration. He resides in Green Brook, New Jersey, and has served as the Charter President of the Somerville Metro Lions Club.

The Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey is a charitable, not-for-profit organization dedicated to the restoration of sight. It recovers, evaluates and distributes human eye tissue for transplantation. It also supports research into the causes and cures of blinding eye conditions, promotes donation awareness through public and professional education, and provides humanitarian aid to people in need of corneal transplantation throughout the world.
