Eye Bank welcomes Michael C. Tyrone, Sr. to Board of Directors

CLARK – The Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey is pleased to announce that Michael C. Tyrone, Sr. will be joining its Board of Directors, effective July 1.

At a recent Open House, Tyrone learned of the Eye Bank's charitable mission to restore sight, and was inspired to get involved. He recommended that Investors Savings Bank, where he serves as Vice President and Clark Branch Manager, support the Eye Bank's 2010 Visionary Award Banquet, and also become the Eye Bank's first official Community Partner.

"Michael's background and enthusiasm make him an ideal candidate for a Board position," says Margaret Chaplin, Executive Director of the Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey. "We're thrilled to continue working with him."

Tyrone is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking. He resides in Linden, New Jersey.

The Lions Eye Bank of New Jersey is a charitable, not-for-profit organization dedicated to the restoration of sight. It recovers, evaluates and distributes human eye tissue for transplantation. It also supports research into the causes and cures of blinding eye conditions, promotes donation awareness through public and professional education, and provides humanitarian aid to people in need of corneal transplantation throughout the world.
